

BALLOON CONVENTION—ADJOURNED MEETING.
An adjourned meeting will be held at the Court House THIS Evening at early candle light, to appoint delegates to attend the Railroad convention to be held at Muncietown on the 20th inst. A general attendance is requested.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Saturday, August 14, 1847.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.—We notice some of the democratic papers are agitating the question of a national convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President. We do not think it necessary to argue the propriety or expediency of holding such a convention.—That question we consider settled, and look on the convention as a matter of course, and as the only way in which democratic candidates should be nominated.

Our principles have now been fairly and satisfactorily tested; the sub-treasury and the revenue tariff are in full operation, and instead of the ruin these measures were to have produced, the country is prosperous and happy. A protective tariff and a National Bank may now be ranked among the absurdities of the past—as more obsolete ideas. The democratic course of policy having been found so beneficial to the country, there cannot be any reason to doubt that the people will continue their support to that party, and elect the nominee of their convention, if not unanimously, at least with such an overwhelming majority as will show that they duly and fully appreciate the blessings which have flowed from Mr. Polk's wise and patriotic administration.

It may be deemed too early yet to take grounds in favor of any particular candidates. We have many good and faithful men in our ranks who would do honor to the high station of President of this republic, any of whom may be the choice of the convention will meet with our hearty and active support.—We should however prefer that the next candidate come from one of the free states; this will we hope be readily conceded by the democracy of the South, as it in fairness belongs to us.—Mr. Polk is a citizen of a slave state and so was Mr. Tyler his predecessor. We therefore claim that the next President be from a free state—and that granted, we do not care much who the man may be, as we have every confidence that the convention will select none but a suitable, honest, and capable man, and one deserving the support of the democratic party.

NATURAL CURIOSITY.—Dr. Kiser of this city, has in his possession a pig with two faces, four ears, and eight legs: or rather, it may be described as two pigs, placed back to back, and having the head and shoulders grown together. Below the shoulders, the bodies and hind quarters are entirely separate and perfect. It was part of a litter of five, and was dead when discovered. It is preserved in spirits, and may be seen by the curious at the office of Dr. Sturgis.

RECRUITS.—Twenty-seven recruits left here last evening for Covington barracks.—They were enlisted by Lieut. Armstrong for the 2d Dragoons, and are a fine, likely-looking body of young men. Lieut. A. will remain here three weeks longer. A favorable opportunity is offered to any young men who wish to serve their country, or, in the slang of the day "to see the elephant." Besides abundant rations, clothing, and good pay, every soldier will be entitled, on his discharge, to a quarter section of land, or a government scrip for $150.

Fort Wayne, Muncietown, and Indianapolis Railroad.—A meeting was held at the court house in this city on Wednesday evening last to take into consideration the expediency of appointing delegates to attend the railroad convention to be held at Muncietown on the 20th inst. There being but a small attendance, the meeting adjourned until this evening, when we hope all who feel any interest in the prosperity of the place will attend. We must confess we were somewhat surprised at the indifference manifested by our citizens towards this important subject; not one merchant or business man attended the meeting. We hope a different feeling will be manifested this evening, for we believe the proposed work if accomplished, would do much towards building up our town and increasing its business.

FOREIGN NEWS.—Arrival of the Hibernia.—The Hibernia arrived at Boston on the 2d inst., in twelve and a half days from Liverpool.—Her news is not of much interest. There has been a slight decline in wheat and flour, the last quotations being—Flour 34s. a 35s.; Wheat, red, 9s. 4d. a 9s. 8d.; white, 9s. 10d. a 10s. 2d. Corn 40s. a 43s.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS.—The editor of the Vincennes Sun was Secretary of the Senate last session, and had consequently an excellent opportunity of judging of the qualifications of the members. We extract below a paragraph from an article in a late number sketching the character of the candidates in the several districts. Those personally acquainted with Mr. Rockhill will at once acknowledge the faithfulness of the portrait, and to those who are not, it will be a source of gratification to see how highly their Representative is spoken of by those who have had the best opportunities of knowing him.

From the Vincennes Sun.

In the 10th District, Wm. Rockhill, is the candidate of the democracy, and G. W. Ewing of "Coon-Skin Bill" memory his opponent. Mr. Rockhill has been a Senator in the Indiana Legislature for many years, during which time, he has distinguished himself as an honest partizan and a faithful legislator. We speak advisedly when we say, that no Senator in the legislature of Indiana had more popularity among his brother Senators than Wm. Rockhill—he could carry almost every measure through the Senate that he advocated. Such was his integrity and candor, that his word was enough to ensure the passage of any bill that he introduced.

The people of the 10th District would do well to elect Mr. R. to Congress. Should he succeed, his constituents will have a consolation in the fact, that they have elected a sound and honest man.

THE ELECTION.—We have elected 7 members to Congress in this state, and the whigs 3, being a whig gain of one. R. D. Owen is defeated in the first district by Embree, whig, whose majority is rising 400. This is most unaccountable; we had always looked on Owen's re-election as certain, as he is one of the most able men in the state, and his district is strongly democratic. In the 2d district T. J. Henry, dem. is re-elected by 42 majority; in the 3d J. L. Robinson, dem. by upwards of 500; in the 4th C. B. Smith, whig, by 1384; in the 5th W. W. Wick, dem. is re-elected by 252; in the 6th Dr. Dobson, dem. is elected; in the 7th, R. W. Thompson, whig, beats Wright, dem. 194; in the 8th J. Pettit, dem. re-elected by about 300; in the 9th C. Cathcart, re-elected by 509; and in the 10th W. Rockhill, dem. beats Ewing, whig, 186.

For the Senate, the democrats have elected 8 and the whigs 10; members holding over—democrats 18, whigs 14; democratic majority 2.

We have not got full returns for Representatives. The State Journal claims a whig majority of four to six.

TENTH DISTRICT.

Below we give the complete returns from this district. They are all official, except Steuben and Jay:

Rockhill.	Ewing.
Allen,	866
Adams,	309
Blackford,	263
Delaware,	639
Grant,	491
Huntington,	390
Noble,	536
Randolph,	722
Wells,	82 maj.
Whitley,	9
De Kalb,	63
Steuben,	75
Jay,	27 m
La Grange,	93
Total,	445
Rockhill's majority,	4259

SENATORS ELECTED.

Allen, Adams, & Wells, F. P. Randall, dem. La Grange & Elkhart, D. Martin, dem. Miami & Wabash, — Cassatt, whig.

Huntington, Whitley, & E. Murray, whig.

REPRESENTATIVES.

Allen, P. Kiser, dem. C. Parker, whig. Adams & Wells, D. McDonald, dem. Huntington & Whitley, II. Swihart, whig. De Kalb & Steuben, J. P. Widney, dem. Delaware, S. Orr, whig.

Noble and Lagrange, Dr. Niemann, whig. Grant, A. J. Harlan, dem.

Blackford and Jay, — Holliday, whig.

NOBLE COUNTY.

We owe an apology to Noble county, for placing it in the whig column last week. We relied on whig authority for its vote, and of course were mis-informed. We thought it strange Noble should have given a whig majority, and could not but suspect there had been something wrong. The official returns below show that this county is still erect.—

Rockhill's majority is only 3 less than Whitcomb's was last year. In one township, Orange, (Herrin's township,) Rockhill's majority is 34, being two more than Whitcomb's.

NOBLE C. H. LA., August 6, 1847.

Dear Sir:—I send you the returns of the election in this county. We have done badly—I feel badly beaten:

For Congress Rockhill received 536 Ewing 499 Rockhill's majority 46.

For Representative Sheldon, (dem.) 524 Niemann, (whig) 488 Sheldon's majority 36.

For Treasurer John McMean, (whig) 538 James L. Warden, (dem.) 483 McMean's majority 55.

For School Commissioner Hiriam Idings, (whig) 534 Elijah M. Wright, (dem.) 483 Idings' majority 51.

For County Commissioner Elihu Wadsworth, (dem.) 521 A. H. Whitford, (whig) 501 Wadsworth's majority 20.

Respectfully yours, WILLIAM F. ENGEL. THOMAS TIGAR, Esq.

HUNTINGTON COUNTY.

For Congress Rockhill, 390 Ewing, 375 Rockhill's majority 15.

For Senator Rippey, dem. 377 Murray, w. 390 Murray's majority 13.

For Representative Pratt, dem. 390 Swihart, w. 373 Pratt's majority 17.

Clerk & Recorder Wiley, dem. 629 Favorite, w. 132 Wiley's majority 497.

Treasurer Loughridge, dem. 466 Purvance, w. 301 Loughridge's majority 165.

ADAMS COUNTY.

For Congress Rockhill, 309 Ewing, 251 Rockhill's majority 58.

For Senator Randall, dem. 315 Angel, w. 244 Randall's majority 71.

For Representative McDonald, dem. 234 Bug, w. 326 Bug's majority 92.

County Treasurer Crawford, dem. 280 Crabs, w. 286 Crabs' majority 6.

County Commissioner Keiser, dem. 278 Wheeler, dem. 280 Wheefer's majority 2.

DE KALB.

We have not received the full official vote of De Kalb. Rockhill's majority is 63; J. P. Widney's (dem.) for Representative is 25; W. Parks, (whig) is elected treasurer by a large majority, and the whigs have also elected the Commissioner and Assessor.

De Kalb has not done as well as she ought this time, owing to some unfortunate dis-ussions about county matters. We hope this may be a warning to our friends to do better hereafter.

WELLS COUNTY.

Congress—Rockhill, 82 maj.

Senator—Angel, w. 19

Rep.—McDonald, dem. 149

Treas.—Courtney, w. 40

Sheriff—Coverts, w. 169

Pros. Atty.—Upon, dem. 23

We have been much disappointed in Wells.

With a clear democratic majority of 140 votes they have allowed themselves to be beaten in most of the county officers, and only gave Rockhill about two-thirds what under other circumstances they might have done. It is to be hoped that hereafter they will hold conventions, and not allow the thirst for office on the part of individuals to endanger our ascendancy in the county.

STEUBEN.

We have not yet got the official returns from Steuben. Rockhill's majority is between 70 and 100. Widney has a majority of about 40, and is elected Representative from De Kalb and Steuben. The whole democratic county ticket is elected by an average majority of about 70. This is better than we had looked for. Democracy is "progressive" in Steuben.

LA GRANGE COUNTY.

La Grange has done worse than any county in the district, and we fear there must have been something wrong there. Ewing, whig, has 93 majority for Congress; Harris, whig,

127 for Senate; Niemann, w., 50 for Representative; and the Assessor, Commissioner, and Prosecuting Attorney are whigs. The Democrats elected J. Briscoe Sherill, by 243 majority, S. A. Bartlett, Treasurer by 198 and A. Eminger Coronet, by about 300. The defalcation we understand, was principally in one or two townships, which usually give heavy democratic majorities, but this year gave majorities for the whigs for Congress,

Senate, and Representative. We had expected La Grange county was redeemed from whiggery, and would have taken an honorable place in the democratic ranks this year.

However, we hope to see it there next year.

The Parlor Magazine.

J. T. HENDLEY, EDITOR.

THIS Magazine, formerly under the care of D. Head, contains the Fourth Volume under the editorship of J. T. Hendley, author of "Napoleon and his Marshalls," "Washington and his Generals," "Letters from Italy," &c., &c.

We hazard nothing in saying that this Magazine is destined to fill a large place in public estimation; that it will not only sustain its present enviable reputation, but even to-tall far higher popularity, and become the companion of many a citizen's library.

The editor will lend his services to make this work popular. Magazines of the day, and while awaiting himself or friends from the best writers, he will draw freely from his own abundant store.

It will continue to maintain its high moral tone, and nothing will be admitted into its columns which will minister to the corrupt and condemned, or which will not be of the "living world with us."

The object is to offer the public a Magazine containing all the attraction and interest of the right periodicals, while it moves in a different

The Press and the public are daily admiring the very high quality of the editorial ability of the Magazine, and the beauty and style with which it is published, placing it in the very first rank in every respect, among the thousands of which we are the following:

"Mr. Headley's lively and versatile pen so admirably fitted to give a charm to a work like this."—New York Evangelist.

"Under the editorial charge of J. T. Hendley, the most popular writer of the age, we predict a still stronger interest will be taken in this already well known and valuable Magazine."

The name of Headley is a sure guarantee of success.—Farmer and Mechanic.

"The new editor has infused that interest and abounding enthusiasm into its pages for which his writing is remarkable, and which has given it in the eyes of those who appreciate the sympathetic and forcible touch, without losing anything of its former chaste and elegant words and style."—Widener's Boston Democrat.

"We wish this Magazine much success under its present guardianship!"—Advocate and Jurist.

"The editor is well known as one of the most brilliant writers of the day."—American Agriculture.

"Their motto is to enliven the beautiful with the grand."—A. B. Reavis.

"Mr. Headley contributes to the present Magazine hourly in his discriminating style."—
N. P. Willis.

"His pen will add greatly to the interest of the publication, and his influence great influence in extending its circulation."—Christian Intelligencer.

"This very month is gaining favor, and softening the roughness of life, and deepening the smile of delight."—Extra performat."—Massachusetts Eagle.

"This is unquestionably the best Magazine of its kind in the country."—Nantucket Enquirer.

"Beautiful as it is valuable."—Indiana Organizer.

"A few good responsible Agents wanted to circulate this work, to whom the host industries will be offered."

RAILROAD CONVENTION—ADJOURNED MEETING.
An adjourned meeting will be held at the Court House THIS Evening at early candle light, to appoint delegates to attend the Railroad convention to be held at Indianapolis on the 20th inst. A general attendance is requested.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Saturday, August 14, 1847.

National Convention.—We notice some of the democratic papers are agitating the question of a national convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President. We do not think it necessary to argue the question of the propriety or expediency of holding such convention;—That question we consider settled, and look on the convention as a matter of course, and as the only way in which democratic candidates should be nominated.

Our principles have now been fairly and satisfactorily tested; the sub-treasury and the revenue tariff are in full operation, and instead of the ruin these measures were to have produced, the country is prosperous and happy. A protective tariff and a National Bank may now be ranked among the absurdities of the past—more obsolete ideas. The democratic course of policy having been pursued so beneficial to the country, there cannot be any reason to doubt that the people will continue their support to that party, and elect the nominee of their convention, if not unanimously, at least with such an overwhelming majority as will show that they duly and fully appreciate the blessings which have flowed from Mr. Polk's wise and patriotic administration.

It may be deemed too early yet to take grounds in favor of any particular candidate. We have many good and faithful men in our ranks who would do honor to the high station of President of this republic, any of whom who may be the choice of the convention will meet with our hearty and active support. We should however prefer that the next candidate be from one of the free states; this we hope will be readily conceded by the democracy of the South, as it in fairness belongs to us. Mr. Polk is a citizen of a slave state and so was Mr. Tyler's predecessor. We therefore claim that the next President be from a free state—and that granted, we do not care much who the man may be, as we have every confidence that the convention will select none but a suitable, honest, and capable man, and can deserve the support of the democratic party.

NATIONAL CHARTER.—Dr. Kiser of this city, has in his possession a pig with two fingers, four ears, and eight legs; or rather, it may be described as two pigs, placed back to back, and having the head and shoulders grown together. Below the shoulders, the bodies and hind quarters are entirely separate and perfect. It was part of a litter of five, and was dead when discovered. It is preserved in spirits, and may be seen by the curios at the office of Dr. Sturges.

Recruiting.—Twenty-seven recruits left here yesterday evening for Lexington barracks. They were enlisted by Lieut. Armstrong for the 2d Dragoons, and are a fine, likely-looking body of young men. Lieut. A. will remain here three weeks longer. A favorable opportunity is offered to any young men who wish to serve their country, or, in the slang of the day "to see the elephant." Besides abundant rations, clothing, and good pay, every soldier will be entitled, on his discharge, to a quarter section of land, or a government scrip for $500.

Fort Wayne, Muncie, and Indianapolis Railroad.—A meeting was held at the court house in this city on Wednesday evening last, to take into consideration the expediency of appointing delegates to attend the railroad convention to be held at Muncie town on the 20th inst. There being but a small attendance, the meeting adjourned until this evening, when we hope all who feel any interest in the property of the plow will attend. We must confess we were somewhat surprised at the indifference manifested by our citizens towards this important subject; not one merchant or business man attended the meeting. We hope a different feeling will be manifested this evening, for we believe the proposed work if accomplished, would do much towards building up our town and increasing its business.

Portuguese News.—Arrival of the Hibernal.—The Hibernal arrived at Boston on the 21st, after twelve and a half days from Liverpool. Her news is not of much interest. There has been a slight decline in wheat and flour, the last quotations being—Flour 34s. a 35s.; Wheat, red, 2s. 4d. a 3s. 8d.; white, 2s. 10d. a 3s. 2d. Corn 10s. a 43s.

Our Representative in Congress.—The editor of the Vincennes Sun was Secretary of the Senate last session, and had consequently an excellent opportunity of judging of the qualifications of the members. We extract below a paragraph from an article in a late number sketching the character of the candidates in the several districts. Those personally acquainted with Mr. Rockhill will at once acknowledge the truthfulness of the portrait, and to those who are not, it will be a source of gratification to see how highly their Representative is spoken of by those who have had the best opportunities of knowing him.

From the Firecracker Sun.—In the 10th District, Wm. Rockhill is the candidate of the democracy, and G. W. Ewing's (the "Rock-Skin Bill") memory his opponent. Mr. Rockhill has been a Senator in the Indiana Legislature for many years, during which time, he has distinguished himself as an honest partisan and a faithful legislator. We speak advisedly when we say, that no Senator in the legislature of Indiana had more popularity among his brother Senators than Wm. Rockhill—he could carry almost every measure through the Senate that he advocated. Such was his integrity and candor, that his word was enough to ensure the passage of any bill that he introduced. The people of the 10th District would do well to elect Mr. R. to Congress. Should he succeed, his constituents will have a consolation in the fact, that they have elected a sound democrat and an honest man.

THE ELECTION.—We have elected 7 members to Congress in this state, and the whigs are having a whig gain of one. R. D. Owen is defeated in the first district by Embree, whig whose majority is rising 400. This is most unaccountable; we had always looked on Owen's re-election as certain, as he is one of the most able men in the state, and his district is strongly democratic. In the 2d district T. J. Henry, dem, is re-elected by 32 majority; in the 3d J. L. Robinson, dem, by upwards of 600; in the 4th C. S. Smith, whig, by 1363; in the fifth W. W. Wick, dem, is re-elected by 262; in the 6th Dr. Wilson, dem, is elected in the 7th, N. W. Thompson, whig beats Wright, dem, 195; in the 8th J. Pettit, dem, re-elected by about 300; in the 9th G. Garhart, re-elected by 500; and in the 10th W. Rockhill, dem, beats Ewing, whig, 286.

For the Senate, the democrats have elected and the whigs 10; members holding over—Democrats 18, whigs 14; democratic majority 2.

We have not got full returns for Representatives. The State Journal claims a whig majority of four to six.

TENTH DISTRICT.

Below we give the complete returns from this district. They are all official, except Steuben and Jay:

	Rockhill.	Ewing.
Allens.	605	878
Adams.	309	521
Blackford.	263	69
Delaware.	639	862
Grant.	321	414
Huntington.	330	375
Noble.	536	439
Randolph.	722	501
Wells.	82 msl.	95
Whitley.	9	131
Do Kulu.	55	75
Jay.	27 m.	35
Lafayette.	—	—
Total.	4415	4259

Rockhill's majority, 156.

SENATORS ELECTED.

Allen, Adams, & Wells, F. P. Randall, dem.

La Grange & Elkhart, D. Martin, dem.

Miami & Whits., — Cassatt, whig.

Huntington, Whitley, & E. Murray, whig.

REPRESENTATIVES.

Allen, P. Kiser, dem, C. Parker, whig.

Adams & Wells, D. McDonald, dem.

Huntington & Whitley, H. Swilley, whig.

De Kalb & Steuben, J. P. Whidby, dem.

Delaware, S. Orr, whig.

Noble and Lagrange, Dr. Nimmitt, whig.

Grant, A. J. Hadson, dem.

Blackford and Jay, — Holliday, whig.

NOBLE COUNTY.

We own an apology to Noble county, for placing it in the whig column last week. We relied on whig authority for its vote, and of course were misinformed. We thought it strange Noble should have given a whig majority, and could not but suspect there had been something wrong. The official returns show that this county is still over—Rockhill's majority is only 3 less than Whitcomb's last year. In one township, Orange (Herriman's township), Rockhill's majority is 31, being two more than Whitcomb's.
